ABOUT EXTRAORDINARY VACATIONS GROUP, INC.

Extraordinary Vacations Group ("EXVG") is a media based travel Company providing customized websites with full travel services and a shared income stream from booked travel. While the leveraging of the Company's proprietary technology and travel relationships ensure competitive pricing, the ongoing marketing support, call center expertise and member shared income stream, culminates in some of the best values in travel. EXVG's subsidiaries include Cruise Shoppes, Attaché Concierge Services, Travel Magazine T.V. Shows, and Trip Professionals.

Extraordinary Vacation's core travel companies specialize in programs tailored around the needs of its clients. The Company's clients, whether they are corporations, non-profit organizations or individuals, receive loyalty-driven privileges and services tailored to membership programs. These programs are characterized by directed revenue streams, personalized service and state of the art technology, servicing the consumer's needs above and beyond simple competitive pricing. Additional information about Extraordinary Vacations can be found at www.exvg.com.

Statements made in this release concerning the manner in which we intend to conduct our future operations and our expectations or objectives are forward looking statements. We may be unable to realize our objectives due to various important factors, including, but not limited to the following: the travel industry in which we compete is highly competitive and our principal competitors have substantially greater resources and more favorable operating results than we have. Unfavorable general economic conditions significantly affect discretionary travel and leisure activities on which our business is substantially dependent.
